

The November 4, 2025 Election gives you the power to decide which of the 17 Proposed Texas Constitutional Amendments you want to approve or not. You decide the future for you and your family.

November 2025 Key Dates:
Last Day to Register to Vote - Monday, October 6, 2025
Last day to Apply Vote By Mail - Friday, October 24, 2025
Early Voting - Monday, October 20 - Friday, October 31, 2025
Election Day Nov. 4, 2025

Prop ositio n No.	Description	Originatin g Legislation	Recommendation
1	Texas State Technical College System: This bill proposes to help pay for buildings and upgrades at trade schools and technical colleges.	SJR 59	VOTE YES - this bill will help build a Texas workforce.
2	No capital gains tax: Blocks the state from taxing investment profits now and in the future.	SJR 18	VOTE NO - benefits the wealthy disproportionately.
3	Denies bail for certain crimes: Makes it easier to keep people in jail before trial if they're accused of violent crimes.	SJR 5	VOTE NO - takes power away from judges and disproportionately impacts people living in poverty, and minorities.
4	Dedicated water fund: Dedicates some sales tax dollars to improving water infrastructure.	HJR 7	VOTE YES - will help fund vital water management.
5	Exempt animal feed from taxes: Gives tax breaks to businesses that sell animal feed held for retail sale.	HJR 99	VOTE YES - supports agricultural and retail businesses.
6	Bans stock trade tax: Prevents Texas from adding a tax on stock market transactions.	HJR 4	VOTE NO - reinforces tax unfairness - protection for Wall Street in disguise.
7	Property tax breaks for veterans' surviving spouses: Helps widows and widowers of veterans who died of service-related diseases.	HJR 133	VOTE YES - helps surviving spouse and families.
8	Bans estate and gift taxes: Bans Texas from taxing inheritance or estate upon death.	HJR 2	VOTE NO - Texas does not have a gift tax and this protects the ultra-wealthy.
9	Business equipment tax exemption: Allows people or businesses to pay less tax on items used to earn income.	HJR 1	VOTE YES - reduces burden on small businesses and self-employed Texans.
10	Gives homeowners a property tax break after a house fire.	SJR 84	VOTE YES - prevents homeowners from paying taxes on non-existent property.
11	Helps elderly and disabled Texans save more on school property taxes.	SJR 85	VOTE YES - provides direct relief to elderly and disabled Texans.
12	Strengthens oversight and punishment options for misbehaving judges.	SJR 27	VOTE NO - may lead to partisan punishment of judges; may negatively affect judge's ability to make decisions based on law and not politics.
13	Cuts school property taxes for homeowners by increasing the homestead exemption.	SJR 2	VOTE YES - helps families and offers more tax relief to homeowners.
14	Funds a major state effort to study and fight dementia and related diseases.	SJR 3	VOTE YES - supports public health.
15	Reaffirms that parents, not the government, have the main say in their children's lives.	SJR 34	VOTE NO - parental rights are already in place - this will weaken school and healthcare decisions.
16	Reinforces that voting in Texas is only for U.S. citizens (this is already the law, but proposes to add it to the Constitution).	SJR 37	VOTE NO - this is already federal law.
17	Gives tax breaks to property owners near the border who build fencing or security infrastructure.	HJR 34	VOTE NO - would impact environmental and civil rights; could have vigilante-style enforcement; rewards militarism and racism.